tabular environment
\begin{array}{pos}{cols}
\end{array}
\begin{tabular}{pos}{cols}
\end{tabular}
\begin{tabular}{pos}{cols}
\end{tabular}
\multicolumn{pos}{cols}{text}
\cline{cols}
\hline

 allowable
\begin{tabular}{|l|c|r|}
\hline
first & row & data \hline
second & row & data \hline
\hline
\end{tabular}

\section{section}

\subsection{subsection without number} address Address of publisher. Not necessary for major publishers.

author Name of authors, of format. ...

title Title of work.

series Name of series of books.

volume Volume number.

type Type of tech. report, ex. “Research Note”.

year Year of publication.

Citation types
\cite{key} Full author list and year. (Watson and Crick 1953)
\citeA{key} Full author list. (Watson and Crick)
\citeN{key} Full author list and year. Watson and Crick (1953)
\shortcite{key} Abbreviated author list and year. ?
\shortciteA{key} Abbreviated author list. ?
\shortciteN{key} Abbreviated author list and year. ?
\citeyear{key} Cite year only. (1955)

All the above have an \NP variant without parentheses; Ex. \citeNP.

\begin{table}[!th]
\begin{tabular}
\hline
\end{tabular}
\end{table}

\begin{figure}[!h]
\begin{center}
\includegraphics{picture.png}
\caption{This is the caption}
\end{center}
\end{figure}

\begin{equation}
\sum_{k=1}^n = 1
\end{equation}

\text{some text $\sum_{k=1}^n = 1$ some text.}

\text{\emph{emphasized text} some text.}

\text{\textbf{bold text}: Some text.

\textit{italic text}: Some text.}\n
\text{\texttt{verbatim text}: Some text.}\n
\text{\texttt{verbatim text}: Some text.}\n
\text{\texttt{verbatim text}: Some text.}\n
\text{\texttt{verbatim text}: Some text.}\n
\text{\texttt{verbatim text}: Some text.}